Make a Difference at Shree Deurali Primary English School

Kent College Pembury have sponsored Shree Deurali Primary English School (affectionately known as KC Nepal) based in the remote region of Lahachok, Pokhara, since 2005. The Kent College Pembury community is passionately committed to enhancing and supporting the children's lives through fundraising initiatives. Three groups of students, forty-eight in total, have now visited our sister school, and are now enjoying memories that will last a lifetime.

To guarantee the children at Shree Deurali Primary English School have a brighter future we are asking parents, governors, friends and KC girls for just £5 a month, with a sponsorship commitment of five years.

This money could be used for providing lunch, uniforms, text books, exercise books, pens and pencils, teaching resources, teacher training and in time, new classrooms. This list is not exhaustive and as the school develops so will the needs of the students in Nepal.

If you would like to be a part of the future of Shree Deurali Primary English School you can do so in one of two ways.

- 1) Send in a cheque to the Bursary department.
- 2) Fill in the standing order sheet overleaf.
